LA Art Show returns to the LA Convention Center on Feb 19-23, marking its 30th anniversary with over 100 global exhibitors. The show has sought to democratize art by offering a range of mediums and price points to ensure accessibility while also catering to established art collectors.

As LA's largest and longest-running fair, LA Art Show has played a significant role in the City's emergence as a global art epicenter and its ever-expanding global reach will be on full display with exhibitors from Turkey, Spain, Belgium, Japan, Canada, France, Taiwan, London, Italy, Switzerland and the Netherlands. Highlights include:

- LICHT FELD GALLERY (SWITZERLAND): Multidisciplinary artist and bestselling poet, Arch Hades – named the highest paid living poet in the world in 2021 – presents her sculpture the 'Isle,' a tribute to the island of San Michele in Veneto, where the entire island is a cemetery known as the 'island of the dead'. This sculpture features poetry 'poems are like gravestones, marking where love lies' in Hades' handwriting on the black, polished 'lagoon' plane) and the 'graves' of the island represented by many books forming the sculptures.
- SNISARENKO GALLERY (UKRAINE): "She, Unbroken" brings together Ukrainian-born female artists whose works express their war experience, resilience and strength.
- CORAL GALLERY (MIAMI) will showcase Roberto Vivo's sculptural works like "The Human Tribe Totem," a large 77 x 95 inch bronze sculpture expressing human unity and diversity. Inviting contemplation on form, space, and harmony, it debuted at the 2024 Venice Biennale.
- CASTERLINE|GOODMAN GALLERY (ASPEN): Young American artist, Daniel Yocom who has gained recognition for his unique approach to figurative abstract expressionism infused with hip-hop aesthetics, often incorporates imagery of cars and flowers amidst vivid colors and black marks.
- ART IN DONGSAN (SOUTH KOREA): Sculptural works from Steel Che (Youngkwan Choi) repurpose industrial materials into artistic forms. The exhibition's centerpiece Steam Robot demonstrates his mastery of traditional craftsmanship.
- COLUMBIA ROAD GALLERY (LONDON, UK): Capturing East London's vibrant art scene, the gallery showcases up-and-coming UK artists Kate Boxer, Thomas Gosebruch, Hannah Ludnow, and Jonathan Schofield.
- DANUBIANA MUSEUM (SLOVAKIA): Viktor Freso's breathtaking 30-foot Bear sculpture symbolizing power and resilience, will be displayed in the lobby setting the tone for the event as bigger, and more ambitious.

To amplify marginalized perspectives, the show will include a non-commercial section DIVERSEartLA curated by Marisa Caichiolo featuring 8 famed art institutions representing diversity and inclusion in the arts. They include Celebrating Diversity by Chiachio & Giannone curated by Gabriela Urtiaga, Chief Curator at MOLAA, Dactiloscopy Rosa: Video Art and QUEER Constructions curated by Nestor Prieto and presented by Museo La Neomudejar (Madrid, Spain), and Carlos Martiel | Cauce/Riverbed curated By Marisa Caichiolo

For more information and tickets, please visit <http://www.laartshow.com>; 15% of proceeds will be donated to the American Heart Association's Life is Why campaign.
